How we chose our recommendations

Because we know that there's nothing like a real recommendation, we first headed to the Mumsnet forums to find out which destinations in France were being recommended. We then did some online research, looking at which regions and villas come highly rated on review sites and booking sites like Booking.com, Oliver's Travels, Vrbo, Airbnb and Tripadvisor. We scrutinised user reviews to ensure positive guest experiences before narrowing down our list of the best villas in France for families.
